Biography

KIRK STARKEY is an active recording cellist, recent work includes performances and arrangements on countless records including Glorious Sons, Ash and Bloom, Emma-Lee, Rehan Dalal, and Lou Rhodes (Lamb). Starkey has performed with Quartetto Gelato, Stephen Page, Justin Hines, Elsiane and Peter Gabriel. A featured solo performer/composer at the International Cello Festival of Canada (Winnipeg 2011), Kirk was featured in a live solo performance broadcast on CBC's The Signal.

In the role of Producer, Kirk specializes in project management and recording on location in beautiful spaces. He has albums released on Hidden Pony Records and Musica Omnia. His clients include the Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra, Twin Within, Valerie Tryon, Suzanne Shulman, Bud Roach, Capella Intima, Paul Marleyn, and Shoshana Telner. A frequent contributor to television programs, Kirk can be heard on X Company (CBC), Flashpoint (CTV), and Hannibal (NBC). His collaboration with Tonmeister and composers Daniel Dettwiler and Ramon de Marco (Basel, Switzerland) is in permanent installation in the BMW Museum in Munich, Germany.

Kirk performs on a newly restored Bohemian cello (c.1775) on generous loan from Hildegard Battista. "One of Canada's most inventive Cellists today" CBC Radio 2
